

The Cash Flow Statement

Business & Management

Three sections, and why a profitable company can still run out of money.

Three activity categories.

Section	Contains
Operating	Cash from trading; the core
Investing	Buying and selling long-term assets
Financing	Debt, equity and dividends

Growing companies frequently have positive profit and negative operating cash flow: inventory and receivables absorb the cash.