

Representation

Communications & Media

Who appears, in what roles, and who does the deciding.

What a representation audit counts.

On screen and page

Presence: who appears at all

Roles: agent, victim, expert, decorative

Voice: who is quoted directly

Framing: individual blame or context

Recurrence: the same role every time

Behind it

Who commissions and edits

Whose sources are in the contacts book

Which audience is assumed

Whether corrections follow complaints

Symbolic annihilation names the pattern where a group is absent, trivialised or condemned rather than simply portrayed.
