

Separation of Powers

Law

The three branches, and why they are kept apart.

Branch and function.

Branch	Function	Check on it
Legislature	Makes law	Elections, judicial review
Executive	Implements and administers	Legislative scrutiny, courts
Judiciary	Interprets and applies	Appeals, appointment process

Educational reference. Separation is rarely complete: parliamentary systems fuse the executive and legislature by design.